19 HORNET 93

Since 1908, Morris College has served as a special place for the livelihood and education of hundreds of people.

From the first simple structure to the many beautiful buildings of the present campus, the main thought in mind has been to create a special place — academically and socially for some special people.

In terms of special people, the list is infinite when recognizing those who have been instrumental in creating our great institution and those who are presently members of the Morris College Family. The College is special and its people — students, administrators, faculty, staff — keep it that way.

Dr. Luns C. Richardson, President

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MARVIN CLAYTON ETHERIDGE III

Entered Morris College: August, 1992
Departed his life: April 25, 1993

I Corinthians 15: 51-58

Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed.
In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.
For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.
So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.
O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.
But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through the Lord Jesus Christ.
Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, For as much as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

Please don't cry for me, please don't weep,
For I am not dead, I'm only asleep
You see I'm resting now from life's suffering and pain.
My crown in glory, I now wait to gain.

I want you to know that I love you,
Oh I love you so
But now the time has come for me to go.

The gulf between life and death
is not very wide.
We will meet again soon
on the other side.

My life was good, my joy fulfulled
But now I'm in my Master's will.
Don't be afraid, please don't fear,
For my God, He is always near.
He will watch over you while I'm gone,
He will never ever leave you alone.

I must sleep on now,
I must take my rest,
For I know God loves me and
He knows best.
Surely my death I do not regret,
God has taken me from all my worry and fret.

I have finished my course and Fought a good fight.
And now I must take my flight.

The battle for me now is over,
And the victory has been won.
Now I will hear my Saviour say,
Well done, Servant, well done.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER FOR THE 1993 MORRIS COLLEGE YEARBOOK

To The Graduating Class of 1993

Many graduating seniors tell me that they hope that their degree from Morris College will help them to get a job, and I usually have to remind them that their degree from Morris College is not designed merely to help them get a job but to help them throughout life to get the job done. Our lives require us to confront many jobs of which the one that helps us to earn enough money in order to live is surely important. However, the average person will have pursued some seven different jobs and careers at some time in their life, and the purpose of your degree is to equip you with the communication skills, the computational skills, the organizational skills, the analytical skills and the social skills that will allow you successfully to get the job done regardless of which one of the several careers you happen to be pursuing at the moment.

Of course, you will be confronted throughout your life with other kinds of jobs that will also challenge your skills and abilities. There is the job of being a spouse, the job of being a parent, the job of being a church member, the job of being a citizen, the job of being a club member, and many other kinds of jobs that you may not yet have imagined. Each job will present its own special kind of challenge, but they will all require you to use the skills of communication, computation, organization, analysis, and social interaction that are the keys to getting the job done.

Accumulating a lot of knowledge and skills but failing to put them to work on behalf of a better business, a better school, a better family, a better church, a better country or a better anything represents a terrible waste of human resources and a terrible waste of the educational resources that the college has expanded to make you a more productive and capable person. Our college motto reminds us that we "Enter to Learn" and that we "Depart to Serve." Although your Morris College degree should help you to get a job, I believe that it is more important that it help you to get the job done.

Sincerely,

Luns. C. Richardson

THE CORONATION OF

DIVINE ELEGANCE . . .

That's What Dreams Are Made Of.

MISS MORRIS COLLEGE

Ameache's Acceptance . . .

First, I give honor to God, from whom all blessings flow, for giving me the courage and strength to pursue a vision.

To Dr. Richardson, our distinguished President, Dr. Mary Vereen-Gordon, Dean of Academic Affairs, Mrs. Eliza Black, Dean of Student Affairs, the Board of Trustees, Faculty and Staff, Visiting Queens, Ladies and Gentlemen.

I am indeed honored and privileged to stand before you as the reigning Miss Morris College. A special thanks to my parents, who have always been my anchor, for implanting a seed of hope that continues to flourish. Their love and support has taught me that all dreams and goals can be achieved.

To Dr. Richardson for providing a sound atmosphere for higher learning, an institution I will forever praise.

To the Coronation Committee that has worked so diligently to insure a complete success. Your commitment is greatly appreciated. To the Student Government Association who has been there for my every beck and call. Especially, the student body who has made the honor possible for me tonight.

Our theme tonight is "Divine Elegance: That's What Dreams Are Made Of."

Divine Elegance is a gift given to us by the grace of God at birth. It's the individual beauty inside; a beauty that is invisible; a beauty that can't be compared to the outer beauty. This elegance stands out far beyond a beautiful gown, makeup, or dazzling jewelry. Inner elegance is visible in the way that we respect ourselves and respect the rights, ideas, and feelings of others.

Tonight, each queen displays elegance in action, refinement, grace and richness. These are divine qualities, perfect gifts, that come from God. We all share these perfect gifts, refinement, grace, and richness. Each one of us has a purpose in life, a vision and goals to achieve. Sometimes living in a world where we tend to get angry at the things around us, we lose the proper perspective. This is the time that we should be more disciplined, but instead we lose all hope. Proverbs 29:18 tell us "Where there is no vision, the people perish." Visions are dreams and without them we couldn't really exist. Dreams made it possible for Blacks to overcome the chains of slavery. A dream is the reason this very fine institution — Morris College — stands today. My dream allows me to stand before you tonight as Miss Morris College.

It is said that nothing comes to a dreamer but a dream . . . It's great to have dreams, dream big, but that's just the first step. They can't exist without hard work and dedication, without faith and divine elegance, they won't become reality.

I say to you let your divine elegance over power what's on the outside. Don't allow anyone to set limitations for you by saying you're not smart enough, pretty enough, you don't dress right, or you're too large or even too small. Your true beauty and elegance are within so let it shine.

Thank you and may God bless each one of you.

PARADE OF QUEENS (Her Majesty's Court)

Miss Lorie Ann Matthews
First Attendant
Escort: Joseph Blanding

Lorie Ann Matthews, a senior majoring in sociology, was born in Florence, South Carolina, on August 8, 1971. The youngest and only daughter of five children. Lorie is the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gussie Matthews of Coward, South Carolina.

She is a 1989 graduate of Lake City High School in Lake City, South Carolina and an active member of Savannah Grove Baptist Church in Coward, South Carolina.

She is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., president of the Library Club, peer counselor, student leader, corresponding secretary and sergeant-at-arms of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Lorie's future ambition is to earn her master's degree in social work at the University of South Carolina.

Her philosophy is "Be optimistic. Keep your head to the sky; if you look down, you may stumble and fall."

Henrietta Kennedy was born on December 24, 1971. She is a native of Barnwell, South Carolina. Henrietta is the proud daughter of Robert and Mary Ann Kennedy of Allendale, South Carolina. She has three sisters and two brothers.

She is currently majoring in political science/history/pre-law. After completing her studies and receiving her bachelor of arts degree, she plans to enter Johnson C. Smith University to receive her masters degree in political science/history. Her goal in life is to become an outstanding attorney. She believes, "If your mind can conceive it, your heart can believe it, then you can achieve it."

She is an active participant in the NAACP, the Usher's Organization, Morris College Gospel Choir, and Phi Beta Lambda.

Her honors and awards while at Morris College include: The United Negro College Fund Scholarship 1990, Honor Roll, Creative Decoration Award 1990, the Creative Writing Award 1991, and Miss NAACP 1991-92.

Her philosophy in life is, "I am what I am because of who I am and not what others want me to be."

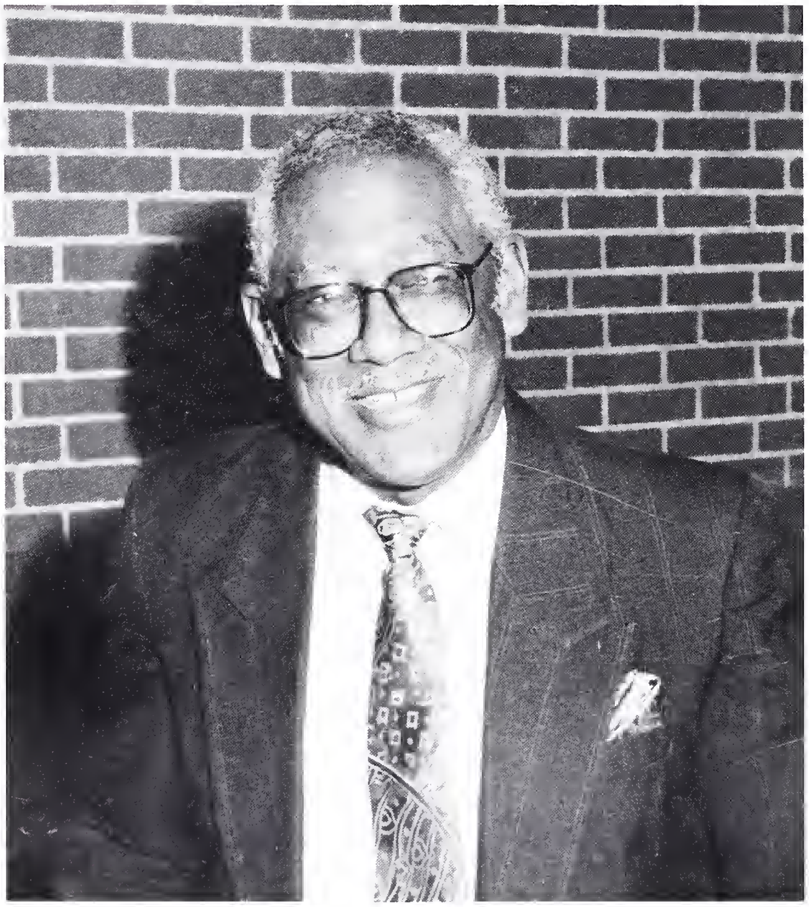
OPENING CONVOCATION

Dr. Wyatt Tee Walker
Speaker



Dr. J. O. Rich
Speaker: Pre-Easter Worship

The School of Religion at Morris College presents Dr. Wyatt Tee Walker to the Sumter Community with its annual Opening Convocation services at 10:00 a.m. on September 16, 1993.

Dr. Wyatt Tee Walker, Senior Pastor of Canaan Baptist Church of Christ, has been called, "Harlem Renaissance Man" by Jesse Jackson, because of his multiple gifts and varied careers.

Dr. Walker enjoys an enviable reputation as a preacher/pastor in the national community. He is a double-graduate of Virginia Union University (B.S., 1950; M.Div. 1953) and holds an earned doctorate from Colgate-Rochester Divinity School (1975) and several Honorary Doctoral Degrees. His graduate studies have taken him to the University of Ife in Nigeria and the University of Ghana in Legon.

Dr. Walker has widely traveled abroad. He currently serves as a Commissioner in the Commission of the Program to Combat Racism of the World Council of Churches. He has been active in the international peace movement and the struggle against apartheid in South Africa and Namibia, in his capacity as Chair of the Religious Action Network of the American Committee of Africa.

Dr. Walker is a native of Brockton, Massachusetts. He is married and the father of four, one daughter and three sons.

More About The . . .

The Morris College School of Religion operates on the basic philosophy that the Black Clergy and Laity must be trained to serve the needs of contemporary American society.

In its endeavor to implement the school's purpose and philosophy, programs have been designed to afford students the necessary discipline to prepare them for the ministry. The incoming student is accepted at his/her level with the understanding that he/she will make the necessary effort to work toward proficiency in his/her area of study. Special attention is given to the spoken word.

In an effort to promote and provide a maximum program that will meet the individual needs of all the students, the school offers the following:

1. A degree program geared to those preachers seeking the Bachelor's degree in either Theology or Divinity.
2. A non-degree or certificate program offered through the Extension and Continuing Education Program which affords training to preachers and Christian workers in the local communities.

The curriculum embraces classical subjects as exemplified in the traditional theological rootage as well as contemporary subjects related by the new direction in clinical training.

Reverend Doctor Isaiah Harvey
Dean, School of Religion

SCHOOL OF RELIGION

Dr. V. Simpson Turner
Speaker

The School of Religion at Morris College presents Dr. V. Simpson Turner to the Sumter Community with its annual Closing Convocation services at 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 28, 1994.

Dr. V. Simpson Turner, Pastor of Mt. Carmel Baptist Church in Brooklyn, New York. He received his bachelor's degree at Gordon College in Wenham, Massachusetts, his Master of Religious Education degree from the Biblical Seminary of New York City, his Master of Sacred Theology at New York Theological Seminary, and his Doctor of Ministry degree from Drew University in Madison, New Jersey.

Dr. Turner is author of the book, Compassion For The City, which is used throughout the United States as a textbook for those going into urban ministry, and for ten years he was the editor of the Baptist Progress, the official journal of the Progressive National Baptist Convention.

RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

The theme for this year's Religious Emphasis Week observance was "Disciplined Living In An Undisciplined Age". The speaker of the occasion was Dr. Charles G. Adams. Dr. Adams received the bachelor of Arts degree, with honors, from the University of Michigan; a bachelors degree in divinity, with honors, from the Harvard University Divinity School; and honorary doctor of divinity degrees from Birmingham College and Morris College.

Dr. Adams is presently the President of the Progressive National Baptist Convention and pastor of Hartford Memorial Baptist Church, Detroit, Michigan.

The observance of Religious Emphasis Week is a tradition at Morris College. It gives the community the opportunity to place special emphasis on worship and religious ideals and provides an opportunity for Morris College and the Sumter Community to share in Christian Fellowship.

Morris College Annual Religious Emphasis Week was held February 25-28 in the Neal-Jones Auditorium at 10:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. daily.

MID-WINTER BANQUET AND RALLY

Drs. Charles G. Adams and Luns C. Richardson

The Annual Mid-Winter Banquet/Rally was a tremendous success as nearly 1,200 persons gathered to raise funds for Morris College.

The message for the evening was brought by one of America's greatest ministers, Dr. Charles G. Adams. Dr. Adams emphasized the importance of the black church and its contributions to society and he urged young people not to forget the roots of their existence and to thank God for the many blessings he bestows by keeping prayer in their daily lives.

Dr. Adams thrilled the audience with his expressions of the words "thank you" in several foreign languages. His biblical brilliance and versatility reveal why Morris College features him yearly as its speaker.

1993 ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT CONVOCATION

Dr. Joe L. Dudley, Sr.
Founder and Chief Executive
Dudley Products Company
Greensboro, NC

"I AM, I CAN AND I WILL!" That was Dr. Joe L. Dudley, Sr.'s message to 138 Morris College graduates.

Morris' 82nd Annual Commencement Convocation was held on Saturday, May 8, 1993 in the Garrick-Boykin Human Development Center.

Dudley, a man whose life is a rags-to-riches epic, is founder and chief executive officer of the Greensboro, NC-based Dudley Products, Co., a multi-million dollar hair care and cosmetics company.

Dudley told the graduates that if they aim high, they can achieve success as he did.

One of 11 children raised in a three-room farmhouse in Aurora, NC, Dudley, who had a speech impediment that's still with him, was mistakenly labeled mentally retarded in the first grade.

Today, however, he owns one of the largest minority-owned manufacturing companies in the Southeast.

Dudley credits most of his success to his mother, who encouraged him to be anything he wanted to be, despite his impediment and the stigmas others attached to it, he said.

He told the graduates that they are capable of anything and that they must realize that they have a purpose in life.

"We start with zero and we end up with zero, but in between we have time to make a difference in this world. It's important that we understand what we can do," he said.

SUCCESS!

IT'S DOING YOUR JOB THE BEST YOU CAN,
AND BEING JUST TO YOUR FELLOW MAN;
IT'S MAKING MONEY, BUT HOLDING FRIENDS.
AND STAYING TRUE TO YOUR AIMS AND ENDS;
IT'S FIGURING HOW AND LEARNING WHY,
AND LOOKING FORWARD AND THINKING HIGH;
AND DREAMING A LITTLE AND DOING MUCH;
IT'S KEEPING ALWAYS IN CLOSEST TOUCH
WITH WHAT IS FINEST IN WORD AND DEED;
IT'S BEING THOROUGH, YET MAKING SPEED;
IT'S DARING BLITHELY THE FIELD OF CHANCE
WHILE MAKING LABOR A BRAVE ROMANCE;
IT'S GOING ONWARD DESPITE DEFEAT
AND FIGHTING STAUNCHLY, BUT KEEPING SWEET;
IT'S BEING CLEAN AND IT'S PLAYING FAIR;
IT'S LAUGHING LIGHTLY AT DAME DESPAIR;
IT'S LOOKING UP AT THE STARS ABOVE,
AND DRINKING DEEPLY OF LIFE AND LOVE;
IT'S STRUGGLING ON WITH THE WILL TO WIN,
BUT TAKING LOSS WITH A CHEERFUL GRIN;
IT'S SHARING SORROW, AND WORK, AND MIRTH,
AND MAKING BETTER THIS GOOD OLD EARTH;
IT'S SERVING, STRIVING THROUGH STRAIN AND STRESS,
IT'S DOING YOUR NOBLEST — THAT'S SUCCESS!
